

May 13, 2018

AAU and Abu Dhabi Executive Office enhance cooperation

Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh, AAU Chancellor met HE Dr. Mohamed Rashed Al Hameli, Director General of Abu Dhabi Executive Office discussed the ways of enhancing cooperation relations and enhancing the capabilities of the students through providing training opportunities. In addition to cooperating in the field of scientific research and implementation of joint initiatives and activities.

During the visit, Dr. Atatreh was briefed on the latest developments of the Executive Office, its achievement and initiatives in cooperation with government agencies in order to implement the best international practices that would increase the competitiveness of the Emirate of Abu Dhabi at various levels and development fields. Stressing the importance of this visit, which achieves the vision of Al Ain University in consolidating its relations with various local and international institutions.

HE Al Hameli was reviewing the establishment stages of Al Ain University of Science and Technology, the latest developments, achievements, the future strategic plans, and the role played by the University's administration to contribute in the UAE development. He appreciated the efforts of AAU and praised its achievements made in a short time.

At the end of the meeting, Dr. Atatreh presented HE Al Hameli a book, containing the most outstanding achievements of the University, its news and activities during the year 2017 under the name of "Al Ain University of Science and Technology .. Visions and Achievements 2017".

Press Release Link