

Dec 12, 2016

The Director General of the General Secretariat of the Executive Council received the AAU Chancellor

From their keenness on supporting and strengthening the strategic relationship effectively, H.E Dr. Fahad Matar Al Niyadi -Director-General of the General Secretariat of the Abu Dhabi Executive Council, received Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh –Chancellor of Al Ain University, to discuss the cooperation aspects and activation of joint efforts between the two parties.

For his part, H.E Al Neyadi welcomed Dr. Atatreh stressing the in-depth relationship between the two institutions and the attention given by the General Secretariat of the Executive Council to the university and students, encouraging creativity and innovation, supporting students, and preparing them for the working life in the future.

For his part, Dr. Atatreh presented the special edition of the university's book to H.E Al Neyadi, which summarizes the most important achievements and events in the university during the past years, He also praised the positive vision of the General Secretariat of the Executive Council and its commitment to achieving the goals of the Strategic Plan for the Secretariat and the efforts to consolidate the institutional innovation, and the quest to build and develop different activities and knowledge systems among universities and colleges for qualifying students.

By the end of the meeting, both parties had called for Continuous communication, which contributes to the active role of the two institutions, As Dr. Atatreh presented his special thanks to H.E Al Neyadi for the kind reception.

Press Release Link