Al Ain University participates in NAJAH 2019

Under the patronage of HE Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of Tolerance, Al Ain University participated in the 13th edition of NAJAH Abu Dhabi Exhibition 2019, held at the Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Center, it lasted for three days with the wide participation of 130 universities representing 21 countries.

Visitors of the AAU's pavilion were briefed on the latest academic programs such as; Master of Criminal Sciences and Bachelor of Science in Cybersecurity, where they aim to enhance the student's skills to commensurate with the labor market and keeps pace with the technology, in addition to diverse programs in Pharmacy, Engineering, Law, Education, and Media.

The Student's Recruitment Unit staff reviewed the most important scholarships offered by the university to students, including grants to high school students, grants to outstanding students, grants to the brothers and relatives, and grants to needy dependents, in addition to the humanitarian assistance provided by the university to needy students.

The participation of Al Ain University this year was marked by presenting a lecture by Dr. Mohammad Ghattas, Deputy Dean of the College of Pharmacy, titled “Passionate university life, career & beyond” as part of a series of scientific lectures organized by NAJAH Exhibition at the Knowledge Zone.

During the lecture, Dr. Ghattas talked about how the student selects the appropriate university specialization based on the required specializations in the labor market, the most important skills that the student should acquire during the undergraduate stage, and how to develop himself to prepare it for the work life. He also reviewed the right ways to find the right job after graduation, and how to face the challenges of the labor market.

Dr. Ghattas stressed that this lecture aims to guide students on the right path in their university life and beyond, enhance their professional skills and provide useful information and ideas to encourage them to develop themselves and increase their self-confidence.

It is worth to mention that, Al Ain University is keen to participate annually in the NAJAH exhibition to enhance communication with students and reflects a bright image of the university on all levels, considering that the NAJAH exhibition is one of the most important education exhibitions in the UAE.
