

Feb 23, 2021

Prof. El Refae stressed on the AAU's concern in outstanding students

In order to keep communication between students and the university, The Deanship of Student Affairs, Al Ain campus, organized a virtual celebration to honor the distinguished students of the first semester 2020-2021. In the presence of Prof. Ghaleb El Refae, AAU President, Prof. Amer Qsaem, AAU Vice President, Prof. Ibtehal Aburezeq, Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Hani Al Jarrah, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, Deans, and distinguished students.

The celebration, which was organized for the third time virtually honored 28 students from Al Ain campus, and 49 from Abu Dhabi campus. And it aims to face the challenges of social distance caused by corona pandemic, which will not be a barrier to joy or communication.

Prof. El Refae, emphasized that the distinguished students are role models for other students in all disciplines, stressing on Al Ain University's keenness in paying attention to all students, especially the outstanding ones. While, Prof, Qasem congratulated them and urging them to exert more efforts to excel in academic achievement, to serve the country.

Prof. Aburezeq, stressed that the university was keen to organize this celebration to spread joy in the hearts of students and enhance communication with them. Even at a distance due to the pandemic caused by the Covid-19 virus, the celebration aims at honoring and motivating students to continue their Excellence, and educational attainment, which contributes to the renaissance of the country and brings the country to the highest ranks.

Press Release Link