

Apr 04, 2023

A Virtual Lecture Entitled “ADREK”

The Deanship of Student Affairs (Abu Dhabi Campus), in cooperation with the General Authority for Islamic Affairs and Endowments, organized a virtual lecture on the occasion of Ramadan entitled "ADREK", presented by Dr. Majdoleen Al-Nabihi - Ph.D. in Arabic Linguistics and a member of the Guests Program of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the United Arab Emirates.

According to Dr. Majdoleen Al-Nabihi, Ramadan is a month characterized by kindness, and during this holy month, we should follow ways that bring us closer to Allah through acts of kindness, donations, and feeding the less fortunate. She provided examples of admirable individuals such as Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan, who embodied generosity and giving. Dr. Al-Nabihi emphasized the crucial pillars of Ramadan, including sincerity and repentance, dedicating time to good deeds, demonstrating empathy, and engaging in continuous acts of giving, which are all essential for earning the satisfaction of Allah.

It's worth mentioning that the United Arab Emirates is actively involved in offering various programs that promote giving, such as distributing food and meals to those in need in mosques, shopping centers, and public spaces. The country also offers programs for Quran memorization, which fosters social cohesion and spreads love and harmony in society.

Press Release Link